

2015 SEATTLE MARINERS

A-Z Guest Guide

Welcome to Safeco Field – home of your Seattle Mariners!

Thank you for joining us at the ballpark. The Mariners have created this A-Z Guest Guide to assist in making your experience at Safeco Field the best it can possibly be. For information regarding topics not included, please ask any of our Safeco Field Hosts, stop by one of our Guest Service Centers or visit us online at Mariners.com.

All-Star Club Presented by EOC

The All-Star Club is a premium luxury lounge located above the first base line on the Suite Level. This special club provides just 140 members and guests a first-class experience at the ballpark that includes: VIP parking and ballpark entry via the Suite Level Sky Bridge, a delicious all-inclusive lunch/dinner and dessert buffet, their own private cash bar, spacious indoor dining tables and wide-padded outdoor seating. Season tickets to the All-Star Club are available in packages of 10, 20, 30, 40 games or all 81 games, and include a flexible option. For more information about Premium Seating, visit Mariners.com/Premium or contact a Mariners Premium Sales Account Manager at 206-346-4001.

ATMs

There are eight BECU ATMs located at the ballpark. Locations are: outside the Home Plate and Left Field Gates, on the Main Level at Section 128 (2) and Section 186, on the Terrace Club at Section 223 and on the View Level at Section 329 (2).

Autographs

Guests may seek autographs from the time the main gates open (2 hours prior to game time) until the end of batting practice (45 minutes prior to game time). Guests seeking autographs in others' seating sections must move to their ticketed seats 45 minutes prior to game time or when the ticket holder arrives.

Baby Changing Areas and Nursing Lounge

As a convenience to our guests with small children, baby-changing tables are located in most restrooms throughout the ballpark. Also, a Nursing Lounge is available at Section 128.

Bags & Coolers

Guests may bring in bags that do not exceed 16"x16"x8". All bags will be searched upon entry. (see Food and/or Bottles, Cans & Outside Beverages). Prohibited items will not be permitted inside the ballpark including hard-sided coolers.

Banners & Signs

Banners and signs are permitted in the ballpark provided they do not obstruct the view of other guests or ballpark signage. They must be less than three feet in height, baseball related, in good taste and not commercial or political in nature. The Mariners reserve the right to remove any banner or sign.

The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest — Home of the Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame

A fun and informative destination that you will want to visit is the Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest, which is the home of the Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame. Both are located on the Main Level along the third base line behind Sections 133 - 136. The Museum and Hall of Fame are free and open to all fans during every Mariners home game.

The Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame celebrates the best of Mariners baseball with nine inductees - Alvin Davis (1997), Dave Niehaus (2000), Jay Buhner (2004), Edgar Martinez (2007), Randy Johnson (2012), Dan Wilson (2012), Ken Griffey Jr. (2013), Lou Piniella (2014) and Jaime Moyer, who will be the ninth inducted into the Mariners Hall of Fame during a pregame ceremony on Saturday, August 8, 2015, before the game against the Texas Rangers.

Batting Practice Times (most games)

The Mariners hit 2 hours and 35 minutes before game time for one hour. Visitors hit 1 hour and 35 minutes before game time for 45 minutes. The teams may not hit before every game.

Birthday & Anniversary Packages

Fans can purchase a Mariners Birthday Package ($24) or Anniversary Package ($36), plus tax and handling. Packages include a $25 Ivar's gift card, a scoreboard greeting, a Mariners tote bag and much more. Tickets are not included in these packages, but can be purchased when you order. To order, call our Client Sales and Services Department at 206-346-4001 or on our website, Mariners.com/Scoreboard.

Bottles, Cans & Outside Beverages

No bottles, cans or outside beverages (including water/ice) may be brought into Safeco Field. Exceptions are made for guests with medical needs, baby bottles and unopened, soft-sided, single-serve containers (such as small milk cartons and juice boxes). Guests may bring in empty plastic bottles and fill them at any of the 66 drinking fountains located throughout the ballpark.

Bricks - 'Fan Walk'

Located in The 'Pen presented by ROOT SPORTS™, the 'Fan Walk' consists of more than 12,500 paving bricks inscribed with the names and sentiments of Mariners fans. A touch screen Brick Locator with a full list and map of all brick locations is available adjacent to the Mariners "Good Stuff" merchandise shop.

Cameras & Camcorders

Personal photography and video are permitted in the ballpark provided the images are for personal use only. However, videotaping any game action is prohibited. Photographic support tools that may interfere with the enjoyment of the game for others (tripods, detachable lenses) are not permitted in the ballpark.

Children/Strollers

Children, two years of age and under, do not require a ticket to attend a game provided they sit on the lap of an accompanying adult. Fold up strollers should be stored under your seat or checked at a Guest Service Center located at Section 128 or 329.

Edgar's Cantina & Edgar's Home Run Porch

Named for Edgar Martinez, the Mariners Hall of Famer and one of the greatest all-time Designated Hitters in baseball, this restaurant and lounge have a South of the Border flavor. It features Northwest Mex dishes created by Seattle chef and restaurateur Ethan Stowell such as classic street tacos (like Carne Asada and Carnitas with locally sourced fresh ingredients and beers. Signature cocktails made with his line of artisanal mescal, known as Zac, are also available in the restaurant.

Events at Safeco Field

When the team is on the road or during the offseason, host a special event, meeting or celebration at Safeco Field. Gourmet catering, unique party rooms and private tours make every event a grand slam. Visit Mariners.com/events, call (206) 346-4228 or pick up a brochure at a Guest Service Center at Section 128 or 329 for more information.

Exit & Re-entry

If you wish to leave the ballpark, but plan on returning, you must have your ticket scanned for re-entry by a Gate Host at an entrance gate (Home Plate, Left Field, Center Field, Right Field or Sky Bridges) prior to exiting.

Family Section/Restrooms

A special alcohol-free Family Section is available for all Mariners games in Section 104. No alcoholic beverages may be sold or brought into this area. Family restrooms are located at Sections 103, 120, 234, 319, 327 and 332.

Fan Help Hotline - 206-861-2200

If anyone is interfering with your enjoyment of our facility, please call or text us at 206-861-2200 for assistance. Please give us your specific location and the nature of the problem.

FanGrams

Mariners FanGrams are the biggest and boldest message fans can get at Safeco Field. Taking up about half of the Center Field scoreboard, fans can purchase a Mariners FanGram for birthdays, anniversaries, engagements, graduations, job promotions, wedding proposals, welcome home messages, special greetings or if they just want to see their name in lights! FanGrams run at the end of the sixth inning and can be purchased for $100 by calling our Client Sales and Services Department at 206-346-4001. Convenient 24 hour online purchasing is available on our website for $115 at Mariners.com/Scoreboard.

First Aid

First Aid Stations are located at Sections 128 and 329 and are staffed by Seattle Fire Department Medics. If you need immediate assistance please notify any Safeco Field Host, visit the nearest First Aid Station or a Guest Services Center at Section 128 or 329.
