Sacajawea Elementary PTA (Parent Teacher Association) is a Non-Profit 501(c)3 organization. It would be GREAT experience!

We have other non-elected board positions too! If we could get 18-24 parents doing ONE position GREAT we could increase organization and have fun!!! Many of our current PTA volunteers have been holding multiple positions over the past few years, but we would be overjoyed for some new friendly faces to ease the load...

"Everybody can be great... because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."
